PRAYING THE MASS

The Liturgy is frequently spoken of as the source and summit of Christian life. It is source: for in the Liturgy we receive the grace we need to live in communion with God each day of our lives. It is summit: because we bring to the Mass all the events of our lives, the joys and sorrows, the failures, the successes, and they are united with Christ's self offering of himself to his Father.

What we receive at Mass we take to our lives: what we live we bring to the Mass. Mass leads us to life and life leads us to worship – there is a progression, a cyclical, spiralling progression able to lead us into an ever-deeper relationship with God.

Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life

Pope Benedict XIV writes:

The love that we celebrate in the sacrament is not something we can keep to ourselves. By its very nature it demands to be shared with all. What the world needs is God's love; it needs to encounter Christ and to believe in him.

The Eucharist is thus the source and summit not only of the Church's life, but also of her mission: "an authentically eucharistic Church is a missionary Church." We too must be able to tell our brothers and sisters with conviction: "That which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us" (1Jn 1:3).

Truly, nothing is more beautiful than to know Christ and to make him known to others.
