PRAYING THE MASS

Living Communion

The simple act of receiving Holy Communion is the highest expression of a living and visible unity of faith and life with the community which celebrates that Eucharist.

The Church's unity is rooted and centred in the Eucharist: 'The Eucharist is the creative force and source of communion among the members of the Church, precisely because it unites each one of them with Christ himself.'

We become companions in the literal sense of the word, sharing bread together, the Bread of Life. The Eucharistic Prayers of the Catholic Church are prayed 'in union with the whole Church'.

The healing and uniting power of the Eucharist is such that we can ask the Father to unite all his children, 'wherever they may be.'

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
