Readings: Acts 5:27-32. 40-41. Psalm 29. Apocalypse 5:11-14. John 21:1-19.

on pages 131—133 of the Parish Mass Book

Lord, you turned to Peter at the lakeside and asked “Do you love me?”

We answer with him “Yes, Lord, we do,” but our love is so small and measured.

Far beyond our love for you, though, is your love for us and it is our only hope.

You created a rock from a weak and sinful man.

Create in us a loving heart, and give us a new spirit.

A Prayer for Our Priests

Heavenly Father,
grant that our priests be strengthened and healed by the power of the Eucharist they celebrate. May the Word they proclaim give them courage and wisdom.

We pray that all those whom they seek to serve may see in them the love and care of Jesus, Our Eternal High Priest, who is Lord for ever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Mother of the Church, look tenderly upon your sons, our priests.

Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, pray for us all.

The reading demonstrates that love is not an end in itself but a call to action. If you love me “feed my sheep” says Jesus. He speaks the same words to us today.

Bringing God’s word and care to the world often leads us to places where we “would rather not go”. But we do not go alone. He is with us always, leading us and guiding us, showing us the way. It is the way of the cross. But it is the way that leads to the fullness of his life.
