PRAYING THE MASS

Celebrating together

The celebration of the Eucharist commits us to the poor and should flow into social action; our active love for the poor and oppressed, the sick and the sad, leads us back to the Eucharist as the source and summit of all we do.

St John Chrysostom challenged those who recognised Christ in the breaking of bread to recognise him also in the broken lives of those around them.

Concluding Rites

After the Communion Rite, the Mass closes with a brief Concluding Rite. Its purpose is to send the people forth to put into effect in their daily lives the Paschal Mystery and the unity in Christ which they have celebrated. They are given a sense of abiding mission, which calls them to witness to Christ in the world and to bring the Gospel to the poor.

Glorify the Lord by your life

This is the last of the series 'Praying the Mass'. In September we will begin to be introduced to the new texts and the new missal.
