The New Missal The New Responses The Concluding Rites

After Holy Communion, announcements are made. The new missal instructs that they are to happen 'if they are necessary' so you may notice that they are more brief than before. We stand for the blessing. As elsewhere in the Mass, we make the new response to the priest's greeting: And with your spirit.

Whether the blessing follows the formula printed here, a prayer over the people or a solemn blessing, there are a changes in the words pronounced by the priest, but the response from the people remains the same: Amen.

For the dismissal, the new translation offers options promoted by a recent synod of bishops in Rome. As Mass concludes, we return to the world with a mission and an exclamation of praise: Thanks be to God!

The Blessing

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, ✠ and the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

The Dismissal

Deacon or priest: Go forth, the Mass is ended.

Or: Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord.

Or: Go in peace glorifying the Lord by your life.

Or: Go in peace.

People: Thanks be to God.
